Pieces of the past

Shop sells antiques in old setting

By DAVE WASKIN
Special Writer

Cabbage Rose Ltd. operates out of a house built in the late 19th Century — and has made that house a home for pieces of the past.

An antique shop which opened this spring, the new business is located at 317 N. Lafayette in the City of South Lyon. Store owners Pat Guy of Northville and Connie Loper of Salem Township have designed the interior just as one might decorate a home — but with antiques that are for sale.

The antiques on display range from different types of furniture to framed mirrors to china to a host of items in between. All of these items are displayed with the intent of giving the customer an idea of what they would look like in an actual home setting.

"This is the only way I would have done an antique store," said Guy. "This is something (Connie and I) both agreed on."

The store specializes in antiques from the Victorian era, which Guy and Loper define as roughly 1880-1910. In fact, the name of the business derives from that particular period.

"Cabbage roses were very popular during the Victorian era," Loper explained. "Women wore huge hats with great big silk cabbage roses. If you look at our hand-painted dishes, you'll see a lot of roses. So we wanted something that would evoke a particular feeling of the Victorian era, and for anybody who knows about that period of time, 'Cabbage Rose' does just that."

"There is a renewed interest in the Victorian era," said Guy. "People are building homes with the facade of Victorian homes — so there is a big market. There's a big market for antiques in general."

In an effort to enhance that market and bring more customers to the South Lyon area, Guy and Loper have collaborated with the other antique stores in town to promote a function called "Good Ole' Summertime Antique Days." Though an exact date has yet to be set, the function will take place in late August.

It will last two days and each store plans to offer gift certificates and special sales. Guy and Loper said that maps showing the shop locations, as well as their phone numbers and areas of specialty, should soon be available at all five of the South Lyon stores, which include The Apple Basket, Parkway Antiques, Pegasus Antiques and Collectibles, and Bates & Bodnar Trading Co.
